1. Creating an Online Safety Ethos

1.1 Aims and policy scope

Discussion: Why does a school need an online safety policy?

In today's society, children, young people and adults interact with technologies such as mobile phones, tablets, games consoles and the Internet on a daily basis and experience a wide range of opportunities, attitudes and situations. The exchange of ideas, social interaction and learning opportunities involved are greatly beneficial to all, but can occasionally place children, young people and adults in danger.

Online safety covers issues relating to children and young people as well as adults, and their safe use of the Internet, mobile phones, tablets and other electronic communications technologies, both in and out of school. It includes education for all members of the community on risks and responsibilities and is part of the 'duty of care' which applies to everyone working with children. It should be noted that the use of the term 'online safety' rather than 'e-Safety' should be used to reflect the wide range of issues associated with technology and a user's access to content, contact with others and behavioural issues and is a move away from being regarded as an ICT issue.

Online safety is an essential element of all education settings safeguarding responsibilities and requires strategic oversight and ownership to be able to develop appropriate policies and procedures to protect and prepare all members of the community. The online safety agenda has shifted towards enabling children and young people to manage risk and requires a comprehensive and embedded curriculum which is adapted specifically to the needs and requirements of children and the setting. Online safety should be embedded throughout settings safeguarding practice and is clearly identified as an issue for leaders and managers to consider and address.

Schools and other educational settings must decide on the right balance between controlling access to the internet and technology, setting rules and boundaries and educating children and staff about responsible use. Schools and settings must be aware that children and staff cannot be completely prevented from being exposed to risks both on and offline. Whilst in some early years settings it may not feel necessary to have a separate and specific online safety policy (e.g. in small settings with no internet access for staff or children) there will still be issues regarding professional conduct, dealing with disclosures or online abuse and data protection/security that managers and proprietors will need to consider and address. In some cases these issues can be address within other existing policies (such as health and safety, staff codes of conduct, data security and safeguarding) but managers and proprietors must ensure that they are suitably covered.

Children in all settings should be empowered and educated so that they are equipped with the skills to make safe and responsible decisions as well as to feel able to report any concerns. All members of staff need to be aware of the importance of good online safety practice in order to educate and protect the children in their care. Members of staff also need to be informed about how to manage their own professional reputation online and demonstrate appropriate online behaviours compatible with their role.

Breaches of an online safety policy can and have led to civil, disciplinary and criminal action being taken against staff, children and members of the wider school community. It is crucial that all settings are aware of the offline consequences that online actions can have and a clearly embedded and understood policy can enable education leaders and managers to ensure that safe practice is established. The online safety policy is essential in setting out how the school plans to develop and establish its approach and to identify core principles which all members of the community need to be aware of and understand.

Leaders and managers within education settings will be encouraging and supporting the positive use of Information and Communication Technology (ICT) to develop curriculum and learning opportunities as well as promoting personal enjoyment and achievements for all members of the community. It is essential that the use of ICT and online tools is carefully managed by educational settings to ensure that all members of the community are kept safe and that online risks and dangers are recognised by the setting and mitigated.

Leaders and managers within educational settings will have specific statutory responsibilities regarding ensuring and promoting children’s safety and well-being which apply to both the on and offline world that today’s children inhabit. Statutory government guidance which highlights this for education settings includes Keeping Children Safe in Education (September 2020), Prevent and Tackling Bullying (November 2014), Screening, Searching and Confiscation (February 2014) and The Prevent Duty (July 2015).

Children and young people are likely to encounter a range of risks online highlighted as content, contact and conduct. These issues can be summarised as:

	Commercial	Aggressive	Sexual	Values
Content Child as recipient	Advertising Spam Copyright Sponsorship Hacking	Violent content Hateful Content	Pornographic content Unwelcome sexual comments	Bias Racist and extremist content Misleading info/advice Body Image and self esteem Distressing or offensive content
Contact Child as participant	Tracking Harvesting data Sharing personal information	Being bullied, harassed or stalked	Meeting strangers Sexualised bullying (including sexting) Grooming Online Child Sexual Exploitation	Self-harm and suicide Unwelcome persuasions Grooming for extremism
Conduct Child as actor	Illegal downloading Hacking Gambling Privacy Copyright	Bullying, harassing or stalking others	Creating and uploading inappropriate or illegal content (including “sexting”) Unhealthy/inappropriate sexual relationships Child on child sexualised or harmful behaviour	Providing misleading information and advice Encouraging others to take risks online Sharing extremist views Problematic Internet Use or “Addiction” Plagiarism

‘Keeping children safe in education’ (Sept 2020) is statutory guidance from the Department for Education issued under Section 175 of the Education Act 2002, the Education (Independent School Standards) Regulations 2014 and the Non-Maintained Special Schools (England) Regulations 2015. It applies to all schools and colleges, whether maintained, non-maintained or independent, including academies and free schools, alternative provision academies, maintained nursery schools, pupil referral units and all further education colleges and sixth-form colleges and relates to responsibilities towards children under the age of 18.

All schools and colleges must have regards to ‘Keeping children safe in education’ when carrying out their duties to safeguard and promote the welfare of children and schools and colleges should comply with the guidance unless exceptional circumstances arise. 'Keeping children safe in education' 2020 highlights online safety as a safeguarding issue for schools and colleges and therefore it must be considered and implemented within schools and settings statutory safeguarding responsibilities.

'Keeping children safe in education' 2020 highlights a range of specific statutory responsibilities for schools and colleges regarding online safety which governing bodies and proprietors need to be aware of. This includes (but is not limited to) the need for all staff to be aware of the role of technology within sexual and emotional abuse and also Child Sexual Exploitation and radicalisation and the need for all staff to be aware that abuse can be perpetrated by children themselves and specifically identifies sexting and cyberbullying.

The online safety Policy will need to be interlinked with many different school/setting policies including the Child Protection/Safeguarding Policy, Anti-Bullying, Home School agreement, Behaviour and School Development Plan and should relate to other policies including those for personal, social and health education (PSHE) and for citizenship.

Online Safety policies will provide education settings with an essential framework to develop their online safety ethos as part of safeguarding and enable leaders and managers to set out strategic approaches and considerations as well as ways to monitor impact. It is essential that the online safety policies are implemented as part of the settings safeguarding roles and responsibilities.

The school management and leadership team will have ultimate responsibility for any online safety incidents that may occur whilst on site and lack of knowledge of the issues or technology is no defence. Leaders and managers

Schools and settings have a clear responsibility to work in partnership with families to raise awareness of online safety issues. Through this approach, parents/carers can help school to reinforce online safety messages and promote and encourage safe online behaviours wherever, and whenever, children use technology.

A partnership approach will need to be established via a variety of approaches and strategies and schools and settings should ensure that online safety messages are shared and promoted with parents through a variety of communication channels and events throughout the year.

As with children and young people, parents/carers should be involved in the development of the online safety policies to help build and develop a shared approach to safeguarding children online, both at school and at home.

The school will help children to learn about staying safe online, but recognises that the primary responsibility for online safety at home lies with parents / carers. ## 7. Technical Security

7.1 Managing Personal Data

The school has a separate Data Protection Policy (GDPR – May 2018)

7.2 Security and Management of Information Systems

It is important to review the security of the whole system from user to Internet. This is a major responsibility that includes not only the delivery of essential learning services but also the personal safety of staff and pupils.

Local Area Network (LAN) security issues include:

- Users must act reasonably — e.g. the downloading of large files during the working day will affect the service that others receive.
- Users must take responsibility for their network use. For DCC staff, flouting electronic use policy is regarded as a reason for dismissal.
- Workstations should be secured against user mistakes and deliberate actions.
- Servers must be located securely and physical access restricted.
- The server operating system must be secured and kept up to date.
- Virus protection for the whole network must be installed and current.
- Access by wireless devices must be proactively managed and secured with a minimum of WPA2 encryption.

Wide Area Network (WAN) security issues include:

- Broadband firewalls configured to prevent unauthorised access between schools.
  - As schools move to more cloud based systems the reliability of internet access will become more important.
- + The school will complete a technical audit on a regular basis.

- All members of staff will have their own unique username and private passwords to access school systems. Members of staff are responsible for keeping their password private.

7.3 Filtering and Monitoring

'Keeping Children Safe in Education' 2016 states that Governing bodies and proprietors should be doing all that they reasonably can to limit children's exposure to online risks and should ensure that their school has appropriate filters and monitoring systems in place.

Internet access controls fall into several overlapping types (commonly described as filtering):

- Blocking strategies prevent access to a list of unsuitable sites. Maintenance of the blocking list is a major task as new sites appear every day.
  - A walled garden or "allow list" restricts access to a list of approved sites. Such lists inevitably limit pupils' access to a narrow range of content.
  - Dynamic content filtering examines web page content or email for unsuitable words.
  - Keyword lists filter search engine searches and URLs for inappropriate results and web addresses.
  - Rating systems give each web page a rating for sexual, profane, violent or other unacceptable content. Web browsers can be set to reject rated pages exceeding a threshold.
  - URL monitoring records the Internet sites visited by individual users. Reports can be produced to investigate pupil access.
  - Key loggers record all text sent by a workstation and analyse it for patterns.
  - Smoothwall provides reports about usage that could potentially indicate an issue which requires further investigation. Alerting e-mails are sent to The Headteacher Insert who then takes appropriate action.
- + The governors will ensure that the school has age and ability appropriate filtering and monitoring in place whilst using school devices and systems to limit children's exposure to online risks.
- + The school's internet access strategy will be dependent on the need and requirements of our community and will therefore be designed to suit the age and curriculum requirements of our pupils, with advice from technical, educational and safeguarding staff.
- + All monitoring of school owned/provided systems will take place to safeguard members of the community.
- + All users will be informed that use of school systems can be monitored and that all monitoring will be in line with data protection, human rights and privacy legislation.
- + The school uses educational filtered secure broadband connectivity through Durham County Council.
- + The school will have a clear procedure for reporting breaches of filtering which all members of the school community (all staff and all pupils) will be made aware of.
- + If staff or pupils discover unsuitable sites, the URL will be reported to the School Online Safety Lead and will then be recorded and escalated as appropriate.

- + The School filtering system will block all sites on the Internet Watch Foundation (IWF) list.
- + Changes to the school filtering policy will be risk assessed by staff with educational and technical experience prior to any changes and where appropriate with consent from the Leadership Team.
- + All changes to the school filtering policy will be logged and recorded.
- + The Leadership Team will ensure that regular checks are made to ensure that the filtering methods selected are effective and appropriate. A simple log will be kept showing when checks were completed.
- + Any material that the school believes is illegal will be reported to appropriate agencies such as IWF, Kent Police or CEOP immediately.

Personal staff mobile phones or devices will not be used to access or upload content to any apps which record and store children's personal details, attainment or images.
- + Devices will be appropriately encrypted if taken off site to prevent a data security breach in the event of loss or theft.
- + Users will be advised on safety measures to protect all members of the community such as using strong passwords, logging out of systems etc.
- + Parents will be informed of the schools expectations regarding safe and appropriate use (e.g. not sharing passwords or sharing images) prior to being given access.

8. Responding to Online Incidents and Safeguarding Concerns

- + All members of the community will be made aware of the range of online risks that are likely to be encountered including sexting, online/cyber bullying etc. This will be highlighted within staff training and educational approaches for pupils.
- + All members of the school community will be informed about the procedure for reporting online safety concerns, such as breaches of filtering, sexting, cyberbullying, illegal content etc.
- + The Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL) will be informed of any online safety incidents involving child protection concerns, which will then be recorded.
- + The DSL will ensure that online safety concerns are escalated and reported to relevant agencies in line with LSCB systems

- + Where there is cause for concern or fear that illegal activity has taken place or is taking place then the school will contact Durham Police via their local station and their EDP.
- + The use of computer systems without permission or for inappropriate purposes could constitute a criminal offence under the Computer Misuse Act 1990 and breaches will be reported to Durham Police.
- + If the school is unsure how to proceed with any incidents of concern, then the incident will be escalated to the Education Safeguarding Team.
- + Parents and children will need to work in partnership with the school to resolve issues.

9.2. Responding to concerns regarding Online Child Sexual Abuse and Exploitation

Discussion:

Online child sexual abuse within this policy context is specifically defined as when children are sexually abused or exploited via the use of technology and the internet. Typically this is referred to as “online grooming” however this term can sometimes be considered to be too narrow when considering online child sexual abuse as using the term “grooming” may imply that the behaviour has taken place over a period of time whilst an offender has built a relationship and gained the trust of their victim. Whilst this longer term process still occurs, current trends identified nationally (CEOP/NCA) and locally would suggest that the period of engagement between offender and victim can in many cases be extremely brief. In 2015, CEOP identified that the objectives of online child sexual abuse have evolved and can lead to a range of offending outcomes, such as deceiving children into producing indecent images of themselves or engaging in sexual chat or sexual activity over webcam. Online child sexual abuse can also result in offline offending such as meetings between an adult and a child for sexual purposes following online engagement.

OSCE can also be perpetrated by young people themselves and these issues should be viewed and responded to in line with the Kent Safeguarding Children Board procedure for children who display harmful behaviours (2.2.2).

Online child sexual abuse can also link in with Child Sexual Exploitation and DSLs should be aware of the Durham LSCB information and toolkit <http://www.durham-lscb.org.uk/professionals/child-sexual-exploitation/>

Schools must be aware of and understand the law regarding the online sexual abuse and exploitation of children. Specifically (but not limited to):

- The Sexual Offences Act 2003 – Section 15. Meeting a child following sexual grooming.
- The Sexual Offences Act 2003 – Section 8. Causing or inciting a child under 13 to engage in sexual activity
- The Sexual Offences Act 2003 – Section 10. Causing or inciting a child to engage in sexual activity.
- The Sexual Offences Act 2003 – Section 12. Causing a child to watch a sexual act
- The Sexual Offences Act 2003 – Section 13. Child sex offences (section 10, 11 and 12) but committed by children (offender is under 18).
- The Serious Crime Act 2015 - Part 5. Protection of Children - Section 67. Sending a child sexualised communications.

More information about these offences can be found within the legal framework section of the policy template.

Designated Safeguarding Leads (DSLs) should ensure that they are familiar with the relevant Kent Safeguarding Children Board Threshold and procedures regarding online safety, including but not limited to:

- 2.2.2: Children Who Exhibit Harmful Behaviour including Sexual Harm (Assessing and Providing Interventions)
- 2.2.7: Working with Sexually Active Young People
- 2.2.9: Bullying
- 2.2.10: Online Safety, Child Abuse and Technology

- 2.2.11: Safeguarding Children Abused through Sexual Exploitation
- + Wheatley Hill Primary School will ensure that all members of the community are made aware of online child sexual abuse, including exploitation and grooming including the consequences, possible approaches which may be employed by offenders to target children and how to respond to concerns.
- + The school will implement preventative approaches for online child sexual abuse via a range of age and ability appropriate educational approaches for pupils, staff and parents/carers.
- + Wheatley Hill Primary School views online child sexual abuse as a safeguarding issue and all concerns will be reported to and dealt with by the Designated Safeguarding Lead.
- + If the school is unclear if a criminal offence has been committed then the Designated Safeguarding Lead will obtain advice immediately from Durham Police.

  - Act in accordance with the schools child protection and safeguarding policy and the relevant LSCB procedures.
  - Immediately notify the designated safeguarding lead.
  - Store any devices involved securely.
  - Immediately inform Durham police via 101 (using 999 if a child is at immediate risk)
  - Where appropriate the school will involve and empower children to report concerns regarding online child sexual abuse e.g. using the Click CEOP report form: www.ceop.police.uk/safety-centre/
  - Carry out a risk assessment which considers any vulnerabilities of pupil(s) involved (including carrying out relevant checks with other agencies).
  - Make a referral to children's social care (if needed/appropriate).
  - Put the necessary safeguards in place for pupil(s) e.g. offer counselling support and immediate protection and offer appropriate pastoral support for those involved.
  - Inform parents/carers about the incident and how it is being managed.
  - Review the handling of any incidents to ensure that the school is implementing best practice and the school leadership team will review and update any management procedures where necessary.

- The school will ensure that the Click CEOP report button is visible and available to pupils and other members of the school community, for example including the CEOP report button the school website homepage and on intranet systems.

9.3. Responding to concerns regarding Indecent Images of Children (IIOC)

Discussion:

Schools and settings must be aware of and understand the law regarding indecent images of children. Specifically (but not limited to):

- The Sexual Offences Act 2003 (England and Wales) defines a child, for the purposes of indecent images, as anyone under the age of 18. The Civic Government (Scotland) Act, 1982 replicates this.
- The Sexual Offences Act 2003 (England and Wales) provides a defence for handling potentially criminal images and this is supported by a Memorandum of Understanding which provides guidance on what is and is not acceptable.

It is an offence to possess, distribute, show and make indecent images of children. Making of and distributing indecent images of children includes printing and viewing them on the internet otherwise known as 'downloading'. More information about these offences can be found within the legal framework section.

- + Wheatley Hill Primary School will ensure that all members of the community are made aware of the criminal nature of Indecent Images of Children (IIOC) including the possible consequences.
- + The school will take action regarding of Indecent Images of Children (IIOC) regardless of the use of school equipment or personal equipment, both on and off the premises.
- + The school will take action to prevent access accidental access to of Indecent Images of Children (IIOC) for example using an internet Service provider (ISP) which subscribes to the Internet Watch Foundation block list, implementing appropriate web filtering, implementing firewalls and anti-spam software.
- + If the school is unclear if a criminal offence has been committed then the Designated Safeguarding Lead will obtain advice immediately through the Education Safeguarding Team and/or Durham Police.
- If the school/setting is made aware of Indecent Images of Children (IIOC) then the school will:
  - Act in accordance with the schools child protection and safeguarding policy and the relevant Kent Safeguarding Child Boards procedures.
  - Immediately notify the school Designated Safeguard Lead.
  - Store any devices involved securely.
  - Immediately inform appropriate organisations e.g. the Internet Watch Foundation (IWF), Durham police via 101 (using 999 if a child is at immediate risk) and/or the LADO (if there is an allegation against a member of staff).
- If the school are made aware that a member of staff or a pupil has been inadvertently exposed to indecent images of children whilst using the internet then the school will:
  - Ensure that the Designated Safeguard Lead is informed.
  - Ensure that the URLs (webpage addresses) which contain the suspect images are reported to the Internet Watch Foundation via www.iwf.org.uk.
  - Ensure that any copies that exist of the image, for example in emails, are deleted.
- If the school are made aware that indecent images of children have been found on the schools electronic devices then the school will:
  - Ensure that the Designated Safeguard Lead is informed.

- Ensure that the URLs (webpage addresses) which contain the suspect images are reported to the Internet Watch Foundation via www.iwf.org.uk.
- Ensure that any copies that exist of the image, for example in emails, are deleted.
- Inform the police via 101 (999 if there is an immediate risk of harm) and children's social services (as appropriate).
- Only store copies of images (securely, where no one else has access to them and delete all other copies) at the request of the police only.
- If the school are made aware that a member of staff is found in possession of indecent images of children on their electronic device provided by the school, then the school will:
  - Ensure that the Designated Safeguard Lead is informed or another member of staff in accordance with the school whistleblowing procedure.
  - Contact the police regarding the images and quarantine any devices involved until police advice has been sought.
  - Inform the Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO) and other relevant organisations in accordance with the schools managing allegations policy.
  - Follow the appropriate school policies regarding conduct.

9.4. Responding to concerns regarding radicalisation and extremism online

Schools and settings should be mindful of the specific responsibilities and requirements place upon them under the Prevent Duty <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/protecting-children-from-radicalisation-the-prevent-duty>

From 1st July 2015 specified authorities, including all schools are subject to a duty under section 26 of the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015("the CTSA 2015"), in the exercise of their functions, to have "due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism" This duty is known as the Prevent duty. The statutory Prevent guidance summarises the requirements on schools as undertaking risk assessment, working in partnership, staff training and IT policies.

Schools are expected to assess the risk of children being drawn into terrorism, including support for extremist ideas that are part of terrorist ideology which includes a range of extremism views including the far right. Schools should have clear procedures in place for protecting children who are identified to be at risk of radicalisation. These procedures may be set out in existing safeguarding policies and it is not necessary for schools and colleges to have distinct policies on implementing the Prevent duty. The online safety policy will be an important part of this role as it will highlight the action that the school will take to ensure that children are safe from terrorist and extremist material when accessing the internet in schools.

'Keeping Children Safe in Education' 2016 (to be implemented in September 2016) highlights that governing bodies and proprietors should ensure that suitable filtering is in place which takes into account the needs of the schools community. Schools should ensure that online safety education highlights the risks of extremist content online, especially regarding the use and power of social media as a tool in radicalisation.

When ensuring appropriate filtering is in place, schools should be mindful to act in accordance with the law, much like when ensuring the filtering blocks other forms of illegal content. It should also be noted that radicalisation and extremist views can be shared and accessed on variety of platforms, including user generated or social media sites such as Facebook and YouTube and schools should make filtering decisions with this in mind. The way in which the monitoring of internet and network use is managed will be down to individual schools to decide and implement so as to meet their specific needs and requirements, for example taking into account the curriculum and also the needs and abilities of the community e.g. pupils or staff with EAL. The school (Head and Governing Body) needs to be able to satisfy itself that appropriate safeguarding measures (all reasonable precautions) are being taken to identify any activity which indicates that pupils or staff may be at risk of harm (or indeed putting others at risk). Leaders will need to ensure that appropriate time and resources are available to ensure that this is done sufficiently for a range of risks which will include radicalisation and extremism from a variety of perspectives as well as grooming and child sexual exploitation.

If schools/settings use devices which do not require pupils/staff to “login” to systems (such as iPads) to access the internet then they must ensure that there is appropriate mechanisms in place to log which member of the community has access to which devices to ensure that if concerns are identified, the school can trace users.

Staff with the responsibility for managing and monitoring the school filtering and network must have appropriate resources available to them as well as training and support to ensure that this can be carried out in both a manageable and a safe way. These decisions must be documented within the appropriate school policies (especially the school AUP) and be supported with training etc. and supervision all staff involved as well as the wider whole school staff and pupil group.

Schools should always be aware that simply relying on filtering to prevent radicalisation will not be sufficient as children are likely to have access to a range of devices within the home which may not be filtered or monitored, education around safe use is therefore essential. As all safeguarding risks, all members of staff should be alert to changes in children’s behaviour which may indicate that they may be at risk or in need of specific help or protection. All members of staff should receive appropriate training to enable them to explore their responsibilities with regards to prevent for safeguarding pupils and adults within the school community.

School staff should also understand when it is appropriate to make a referral to the Channel programme The Prevent team can be contacted for advice and by contacting graham.mcardle@durham.gov.uk

Schools and settings may choose to highlight the overall response to the Prevent duty within existing policies and procedures rather than within the online safety policy.

9.5 Responding to concerns regarding cyberbullying

Online or cyberbullying can be defined as the use of Information Communication Technology, particularly mobile phones and the internet to deliberately hurt or upset someone.

Cyberbullying is becoming increasingly prevalent with the rapid advances and use of modern technology. Mobile, internet and wireless technologies have increased the pace of communication and brought significant benefits to users worldwide but their popularity provides increasing opportunity for misuse through 'cyberbullying', with worrying consequences. It's crucial that children and young people as well as adults, use their devices and the internet safely and positively and they are aware of the consequences of misuse. As technology develops, bullying techniques can evolve to exploit it.

When children or adults are the target of bullying via mobiles phones, gaming or the Internet, they can often feel very alone, particularly if those around them do not understand online bullying and its effects. A once previously safe and enjoyable environment or activity can become threatening, harmful and a source of anxiety.

Cyberbullying may not always be intentional and repeated in the same way that traditional offline bullying is. Repeated harassment online could include an initial concern which is then shared or endorsed by others such as by "liking", "sharing" or "commenting". People may not feel that they are bullying by doing this and single issue may become more serious. It is very important that all incidents of online abuse are addressed as early as possible to prevent escalation

Education staff, parents and young people have to be constantly vigilant and work together to prevent this and tackle it wherever it appears. Cyberbullying is a method of bullying and should be viewed and treated the same as "real world" bullying and can happen to any member of the school community.

'Keeping Children Safe in Education' 2016 highlights the need for staff to be aware that abuse can be perpetrated by children themselves including cyberbullying, and staff must be aware of concerning behaviour and appropriate safeguarding responses.

It is essential that young people, school staff and parents and carers understand how online can affect people and how to respond and combat misuse. Promoting a culture of confident users will support innovation and safety.

There are a number of statutory obligations on schools with regard to behaviour which establish clear responsibilities to respond to bullying. In particular section 89 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006:

- Every school must have measures to encourage good behaviour and prevent all forms of bullying amongst pupils. These measures should be part of the school's behaviour policy which must be communicated to all pupils, school staff and parents
- Gives headteachers the ability to ensure that pupils behave when they are not on school premises or under the lawful control of school staff.

Where online bullying which takes place outside school is reported then it must be investigated and acted on appropriately by schools.

Under the Children Act 1989 a bullying incident should be addressed as a child protection concern when there is 'reasonable cause to suspect that a child is suffering, or is likely to suffer, significant harm' and Emotional abuse highlights the impact of online bullying. Where this is the case, the school staff should report their concerns to the Education Safeguards Team. Even where safeguarding is not considered to be an issue, schools may need to draw on a range of external services to support the pupil who is experiencing bullying, or to tackle any underlying issue which has contributed to a child doing the bullying.

Although bullying in itself is not a specific criminal offence in the UK, it is important to bear in mind that some types of harassing or threatening behaviour or communications both on and offline could be a criminal offence, for example under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997, the Malicious Communications Act 1988, the Communications Act 2003, and the Public Order Act 1986. If school staff feels that an offence may have been committed they should seek assistance from the police

9.6 Responding to concerns regarding online hate

Schools and settings will need to be aware that whilst there is likely to be a lot of content on the internet which may be considered to be offensive, very little of it is actually illegal. UK laws have been written to ensure that people can speak and write, even offensive material, without being prosecuted for their views. However there are some situations whereby posting offensive content online may be viewed as illegal as either harassment or possibly as a hate crime. Hate crimes are any crimes that are targeted at a person because of hostility or prejudice towards that person's:

- disability
- race or ethnicity
- religion or belief
- sexual orientation
- transgender identity

Schools must ensure that they respond appropriately regarding online hate and discrimination and support members of the community who may be targeted online.

9.7 Responding to concerns of Child Criminal Exploitation Including County Lines

All staff need to be aware of the indicators that a child may be at risk from, or involved with Child Criminal Exploitation (CCE) and note that this can be facilitated through the use of technology. Further details are in the schools safeguarding policy.

9.8 Responding to concerns of Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment between Children

- + Our setting has accessed and understood "Sexual violence and sexual harassment between children in schools and colleges" (2018) guidance and part 5 of 'Keeping children safe in education' 2020.

Examples may include; non-consensual sharing of sexual images and videos, sexualised online bullying, online coercion and threats, unwanted sexual comments and messages on social media, and online sexual exploitation.
  - o Full details of how we will respond to concerns relating to sexual violence and sexual harassment between children can be found within our child protection and anti-bullying policy.
- + The school recognises that internet brings the potential for the impact of any sexual violence and sexual harassment concerns to extend further than the local community, and for a victim or alleged perpetrator to become marginalised and excluded by online communities.
- + The school also recognises the potential for repeat victimisation in the future if abusive content continues to exist somewhere online.
- + The school will ensure that all members of the community are made aware of the potential social, psychological and criminal consequences of online sexual violence and sexual harassment between children by implementing a range of age and ability appropriate educational methods as part of our PSHE and RSE curriculum. (See PSHE and Computing curriculum progression documents)
- + We will ensure that all members of the community are aware of sources of support regarding online sexual violence and sexual harassment between children.
- + We will respond to concerns regarding online sexual violence and sexual harassment between children, regardless of whether the incident took place on our premises or using our equipment.
- + If made aware of online sexual violence and sexual harassment, we will:
  - o Immediately notify the DSL (or deputy) and act in accordance with our child protection and anti-bullying policies.
  - o If content is contained on learners electronic devices, they will be managed in accordance with the DfE 'searching screening and confiscation' advice.
  - o Provide the necessary safeguards and support for all learners involved, such as offering specific advice on blocking, reporting and removing online content, as well as providing appropriate counselling/pastoral support.
  - o Implement appropriate sanctions in accordance with our behaviour policy.
  - o Inform parents and carers, if appropriate, about the incident and how it is being managed.
  - o If appropriate, make a referral to partner agencies, such as First Contact and/or the Police.

- o If the concern involves children and young people at a different educational setting, work in partnership with other DSLs to ensure appropriate safeguarding action is taken in the wider local community.

- + The school will ensure that all members of the community are made aware of the potential social, psychological and criminal consequences of ‘sexting’ by implementing preventative approaches, via a range of age and ability appropriate educational methods. (See PSHE and Computing curriculum progression documents)
- + We will ensure that all members of the community are aware of sources of support regarding youth produced sexual imagery.
- + We will respond to concerns regarding youth produced sexual imagery, regardless of whether the incident took place on site or using setting provided or personal equipment.
- + We will not:
  - o View any images suspected of being youth produced sexual imagery, unless there is no other possible option, or there is a clear need or reason to do so.
    - If it is deemed necessary, the image will only be viewed by the DSL (or deputy DSL) and their justification for viewing the image will be clearly documented.
  - o Send, share, save or make copies of content suspected to be an indecent image of a child (i.e. youth produced sexual imagery) and will not allow or request learners to do so.
- + If made aware of an incident involving the creation or distribution of youth produced sexual imagery, we will:
  - o Act in accordance with our child protection policies and the relevant Durham SCP procedures.
  - o Ensure the DSL (or deputy) responds in line with the ‘Sexting in schools and colleges: responding to incidents and safeguarding young people’ guidance.
  - o Store the device securely.
    - If an indecent image has been taken or shared on our network or devices, we will act to block access to all users and isolate the image.

- o Carry out a risk assessment which considers any vulnerability of learners involved; including carrying out relevant checks with other agencies.
- o Inform parents and carers, if appropriate, about the incident and how it is being managed. Additional resources are available on the Extranet for both Pupils and Parents
- o Make a referral to First Contact and/or the Police, as deemed appropriate in line with the UKCCIS : ‘Sexting in schools and colleges: responding to incidents and safeguarding young people’ guidance.

Appendix B

Questions to support DSLs responding to concerns relating to youth produced sexual imagery

The following statements may DSLs to consider how best to respond to concerns relating to youth produced sexual imagery:

Child/Young person involved

- What is the age of the child(ren) involved?
  - If under 13 then a consultation/referral to Children's Social Care should be considered.
  - If an adult (over 18) is involved then police involvement will be required. Contact 101 or 999 if there is risk of immediate harm.
- Is the child able to understand the implications of taking/sharing sexual imagery?
- Is the school or other agencies aware of any vulnerability for the children(s) involved? E.g. special education needs, emotional needs, children in care, youth offending?
- Are there any other risks or concerns known by the school or other agencies which may influence decisions or judgements about the safety and wellbeing of the child(ren) involved? E.g. family situation, children at risk of sexual exploitation?
- Has the child(ren) involved been considered under KSCB 2.2.2 "children who display harmful behaviours" or the KSCB CSE toolkit?

Context

- Is there any contextual information to help inform decision making?
  - Is there indication of coercion, threats or blackmail?
  - What was the intent for taking/sharing the imagery? E.g. was it a "joke" or are the children involved in a "relationship"?
    - If so is the relationship age appropriate? For primary schools a referral to social care regarding under age sexual activity is likely to be required.
  - Is this behaviour age appropriate experimentation, natural curiosity or is it possible exploitation?
- How were the school made aware of the concern?
  - Did a child disclose about receiving, sending or sharing imagery themselves or was the concern raised by another pupil or member of the school community? If so then how will the school safeguard the pupil concerned given that this is likely to be distressing to discuss.
- Are there other children/pupils involved?
  - If so, who are they and are there any safeguarding concerns for them?
  - What are their views/perceptions on the issue?
- What apps, services or devices are involved (if appropriate)?
- Is the imagery on a school device or a personal device? Is the device secured?
  - NB: Schools and settings must NOT print/copy etc. imagery suspected to be indecent – the device should be secured until advice can be obtained.

The Imagery

- What does the school know about the imagery? (Be aware it is unlikely to be necessary for staff to view the imagery)
  - Is the imagery potentially indecent (illegal) or is it “inappropriate”?
  - Does it contain nudity or sexual acts?
- Does the child(ren) know who has accessed the imagery?
  - Was it sent to a known peer (e.g. boyfriend or girlfriend) or an unknown adult?
- How widely has the imagery been shared? E.g. just to one other child privately, shared online publicly or sent to an unknown number of children/adults?

Action

- Does the child need immediate support and or protection?
  - What is the specific impact on the child?
  - What can the school put in place to support them?
- Is the imagery available online?
  - If so, have appropriate reports been made to service providers etc.?
- Are other schools/settings involved?
  - Does the relevant Designated Safeguarding Lead need to be identified and contacted?
- Is this a first incident or has the child(ren) been involved in youth produced sexual imagery concerns before?
  - If so, what action was taken? NB repeated issues will increase concerns for offending behaviour and vulnerability therefore an appropriate referral will be required.
- Are the school child protection and safeguarding policies and practices being followed?
  - Is a member of the child protection team on hand and is their advice and support available?
- How will the school inform parents?
  - With older pupils it is likely that DSLs will work with the young person to support them to inform parents
- Can the school manage this issue internally or are other agencies required?
  - Issues concerning adults, coercion or blackmail, violent/extreme imagery, repeated concerns, vulnerable pupils or risk of significant harm will always need involvement with other agencies.

Appendix C

Notes on the Legal Framework

Many young people and indeed some staff and adults use the Internet regularly without being aware that some of the activities they take part in are potentially illegal.

This section is designed to inform users of potential legal issues relevant to the use of electronic communications. It must not replace professional advice and schools and settings should always consult with their Area Safeguarding Adviser or the Education Safeguarding Adviser (Online Protection) from the Education Safeguarding Team, Legal representation, Local Authority Designated Officer or Durham Police if they are concerned that an offence may have been committed.

Please note that the law around this area is constantly updating due to the rapidly changing nature of the internet and this list is not exhaustive.

Human Rights Act 1998

This does not deal with any particular issue specifically or any discrete subject area within the law. It is a “higher law” which affects all other laws. Within an education context, human rights for schools and settings to be aware of include:

- The right to a fair trial
- The right to respect for private and family life, home and correspondence
- Freedom of thought, conscience and religion
- Freedom of expression
- Freedom of assembly
- Prohibition of discrimination
- The right to education

These rights are not absolute. Schools and settings are obliged to respect these rights and freedoms, balancing them against rights, duties and obligations, which may arise from other relevant legislation.

Data protection and Computer Misuse

Trade Marks Act 1994

This provides protection for Registered Trade Marks, which can be any symbol (words, shapes or images) that are associated with a particular set of goods or services. Registered Trade Marks must not be used without permission. This can also arise from using a Mark that is confusingly similar to an existing Mark.

Copyright, Design and Patents Act 1988

Copyright is the right to prevent others from copying or using his or her “work” without permission. The material to which copyright may attach (known in the business as “work”) must be the author’s own creation and the result of some skill and judgement. It comes about when an individual expresses an idea in a tangible form. Works such as text, music, sound, film, video and programs all qualify for copyright protection. The author of the work is usually the copyright owner, but if it was created during the course of employment it belongs to the employer.

It is an infringement of copyright to copy all or a substantial part of anyone's work without obtaining the author's permission. Usually a licence associated with the work will allow a user to copy or use it for limited purposes. It is advisable always to read the terms of a licence before you copy or use someone else's material. It is also illegal to adapt or use software without a licence or in ways prohibited by the terms of the software licence. The Act also provides for Moral Rights, whereby authors can sue if their name is not included in a work they wrote, or if the work has been amended in such a way as to impugn their reputation.

Data Protection Act 1998

The Act requires anyone who handles personal information to notify the Information Commissioner's Office of the type of processing it administers, and must comply with important data protection principles when treating personal data relating to any living individual. The Act also grants individuals rights of access to their personal data, compensation and prevention of processing.

EU General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR" ) May 2018

Schools handle increasing amounts of personal information and have a statutory requirement to comply with the EU General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR" ) and any domestic data protection legislation (currently the Data Protection Act 1998, but with a new Data Protection Bill currently going through Parliament). Together these will be referred to as "the Data Protection Legislation" in this note.

Freedom of Information Act 2000

The Freedom of Information Act gives individuals the right to request information held by public authorities. All public authorities and companies wholly owned by public authorities have obligations under the Freedom of Information Act. When responding to requests, organisations have to follow a number of set procedures.

The Computer Misuse Act 1990 (sections 1 - 3)

Regardless of an individual's motivation, the Act makes it a criminal offence to:

- gain access to computer files or software without permission (for example using someone else's password to access files);
- gain unauthorised access, as above, in order to commit a further criminal act (such as fraud); or
- impair the operation of a computer or program (for example caused by viruses or denial of service attacks).

UK citizens or residents may be extradited to another country if they are suspected of committing any of the above offences.

The Protection of Freedoms Act 2012

This act requires schools to seek permission from a parent / carer to use Biometric systems.

Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000

The Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 (RIPA) regulates the interception of communications and makes it an offence to intercept or monitor communications without the consent of the parties involved in the communication. The RIP was enacted to comply with the Human Rights Act 1998.

The Telecommunications (Lawful Business Practice) (Interception of Communications) Regulations 2000, however, permit a degree of monitoring and record keeping, for example, to ensure communications are relevant to school activity or to investigate or detect unauthorised use of the network. Nevertheless, any monitoring is subject to informed consent, which means steps must have been taken to ensure that everyone who may use the system is informed that communications may be monitored.

Covert monitoring without informing users that surveillance is taking place risks breaching data protection and privacy legislation.

Obscene and Offensive Content including Hate and Harassment

Obscene Publications Act 1959 and 1964

Publishing an “obscene” article is a criminal offence and this includes electronic transmission. For the purposes of the Act an article is deemed to be obscene if its effect is to deprave and corrupt persons who are likely, having regard to all relevant circumstances, to read, see or hear the content. This offence can result in imprisonment for up to 5 years.

Telecommunications Act 1984

It is an offence to send a message or other matter that is grossly offensive or of an indecent, obscene or menacing character. It is also an offence to send a message that is intended to cause annoyance, inconvenience or needless anxiety to another that the sender knows to be false.

Malicious Communications Act 1988 (section 1)

This legislation makes it a criminal offence to send an electronic message that conveys indecent, grossly offensive, threatening material or information that is false; or is of an indecent or grossly offensive nature if the purpose was to cause a recipient to suffer distress or anxiety. This offence can result in imprisonment for up to 2 years.

Protection from Harassment Act 1997

This Act is relevant for incidents that have happened repeatedly (i.e. on more than two occasions). The Protection from Harassment Act 1997 makes it a criminal and civil offence to pursue a course of conduct which causes alarm and distress, which includes the publication of words, which he/she knows or ought to know amounts to harassment of the other. A person whose course of conduct causes another to fear, on at least two occasions, that violence will be used against him is guilty of an offence if he knows or ought to know that his course of conduct will cause the other so to fear on each of those occasions.

The victim can also bring a civil claim for damages and an injunction against the abuser, although in reality this is a remedy that is only used by individuals with the financial means to litigate, and only possible if the abuser can be identified, which is not always straightforward.

Communications Act 2003 (section 127)

Sending by means of the Internet a message or other matter that is grossly offensive or of an indecent, obscene or menacing character; or sending a false message by means of or persistently making use of the Internet for the purpose of causing annoyance, inconvenience or needless anxiety is guilty of an offence liable, on conviction, to imprisonment. This wording is important because an offence is complete as soon as the message has been sent: there is no need to prove any intent or purpose.

Public Order Act 1986 (sections 17 — 29)

This Act makes it a criminal offence to stir up racial hatred by displaying, publishing or distributing written material which is threatening. Like the Racial and Religious Hatred Act 2006 it also makes the possession of inflammatory material with a view of releasing it a criminal offence.

Criminal Justice Act 2003

Section 146 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 came into effect in April 2005, empowering courts to impose tougher sentences for offences motivated or aggravated by the victim's sexual orientation in England and Wales.

Racial and Religious Hatred Act 2006

This Act makes it a criminal offence to threaten people because of their faith, or to stir up religious hatred by displaying, publishing or distributing written material which is threatening. Other laws already protect people from threats based on their race, nationality or ethnic background.

The Protection of Freedoms Act 2012 (2A and 4A) and Serious Crimes Act 2015 (section 76) - Stalking and Harassment

The Protection of Freedoms Act 2012 was updated in 2015 and two sections were added regarding online stalking and harassment, section 2A and 4A. Section 2A makes it an offence for a perpetrator to pursue a course of conduct (2 or more incidents) described as "stalking behaviour" which amounts to harassment. Stalking behaviours include following, contacting/attempting to contact, publishing statements or material about the victim, monitoring the victim (including online), loitering in a public or private place, interfering with property, watching or spying. The Serious Crime Act 2015 Section 76 also created a new offence of controlling or coercive behaviour in intimate or familial relationships which will include online behaviour.

Criminal Justice and Courts Bill 2015 (section 33) - Revenge Pornography

Section 33 makes it an offence to share private, sexual materials, either photos or videos, of another person without their consent and with the purpose of causing embarrassment or distress, often referred to as "revenge porn". The offence applies both online and offline and to images which are shared electronically or in a more traditional way so includes the uploading of images on the internet, sharing by text and e-mail, or showing someone a physical or electronic image. This offence can result in imprisonment for up to 2 years.

Sending images of this kind may, depending on the circumstances, also be an offence under the Communications Act 2003 or the Malicious Communications Act 1988. Repeated behaviour may be an offence under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997. This law and the term "revenge porn" only applies to images or videos of those aged 18 or over. For more information access: www.revengepornhelpline.org.uk

Libel and Privacy Law

These matters will be dealt with under civil rather than criminal law.

Libel is defined as 'defamation by written or printed words, pictures, or in any form other than by spoken words or gestures' and as such the author could be held accountable under Defamation law which was created to protect individuals or organisations from unwarranted, mistaken or untruthful attacks on their reputation. Defamation is a civil "common law" tort in respect of which the Defamation Acts of 1952 and 1996 provide certain defences. It applies to any published material that damages the reputation of an individual or an organisation, and it includes material published on the internet.

A civil action for defamation can be brought by an individual or a company, but not by a public authority. Where defamatory material is posted on a website, the person affected can inform the host of its contents and ask the host to remove it. Once the host knows that the material is there and that it may be defamatory, it can no longer rely on the defence of innocent dissemination in the Defamation Act 1996. This means that the person affected could (if the material has been published in the jurisdiction, i.e. in England and Wales) obtain a court order (an injunction) to require removal of the material, and could sue either the host or the person who posted the material for defamation.

If social media is used to publish private and confidential information (for example breaches of data protection act) about an individual, then this could give rise to a potential privacy claim and it is possible for individuals to seek an injunction and damages.

Education Law

Education and Inspections Act 2006

Section 89 of the states that every school must have measures to encourage good behaviour and prevent all forms of bullying amongst pupils. These measures should be part of the school's behaviour policy which must be communicated to all pupils, school staff and parents. This act (89.5) gives headteachers the ability to ensure that pupils behave when they are not on school premises or under the lawful control of school staff.

The Education Act 2011

Section 13 makes it an offence to publish the name of a teacher who is subject to an allegation until such a time as that they are charged with an offence. All members of the community need to be aware of the importance of not publishing named allegations against teachers online as this can lead to prosecution. Schools should contact the LADO team for advice.

Within Part 2 of the Education Act 2011 (Discipline) there have been changes to the powers afforded to schools by statute to search pupils in order to maintain discipline and ensure safety. This act gave permission for Headteachers (and nominated staff) to search for electronic devices. It also provides powers to search for data on those devices and to delete data. The DfE advice on these sections of the Education Act 2011 can be found in the document: "Screening, searching and confiscation – Advice for head teachers, staff and governing bodies"
www.education.gov.uk/schools/pupilsupport/behaviour/behaviourpolicies/f0076897/screening-searching-and-confiscation)

The School Information Regulations 2012

This act requires schools to publish certain information on its website: <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/what-maintained-schools-must-publish-online>

Sexual Offences

Sexual Offences Act 2003

There are many offences under the Sexual Offence Act 2003 which can be related to or involve the misuse of technology. This includes (but is not limited to) the following points.

Section 15 - Meeting a child following sexual grooming. The offence of grooming is committed if someone over 18 has communicated with a child under 16, at least twice (including by phone or using the Internet) and meets them or travels to meet with them anywhere in the world with the intention of committing a sexual offence. This offence can result in imprisonment for up to 10 years.

Causing or inciting a child under 16 to watch or take part in a sexual act is illegal, including looking at images such as videos, photos or webcams, for your own gratification. Any sexual intercourse with a child under the age of 13 commits the offence of rape.

- Section 8. Causing or inciting a child under 13 to engage in sexual activity (Can result in imprisonment for up to 14 years)
- Section 9. Sexual Activity with a child (Can result in imprisonment for up to 14 years)
- Section 10. Causing or inciting a child (13 to 16) to engage in sexual activity (Can result in imprisonment for up to 14 years)
- Section 11. Engaging in sexual activity in the presence of a child (Can result in imprisonment for up to 14 years)
- Section 12. Causing a child to watch a sexual act (Can result in imprisonment for up to 10 years)
- Section 13. Child sex offences committed by children (offender is under 18) (Can result in imprisonment for up to 5 years)

Section 16 - Abuse of position of trust: sexual activity with a child.

It is an offence for a person in a position of trust to engage in sexual activity with any person under 18 with whom they know as a result of being in their professional role. It is also an offence cause or incite a child with whom they are in a position of trust to engage in sexual activity, to engage in sexual activity in the presence of a child with whom they are in a position of trust, or cause a child with whom they are in a position of trust to watch a sexual act. Typically, teachers, social workers, health professionals, connexions staff etc. fall in this category of trust and this can result in imprisonment for up to 5 years.

Indecent Images of Children

It is an offence to take, permit to be taken, make, possess, show, distribute or advertise indecent images of children in the United Kingdom under two pieces of legislation; Criminal Justice Act 1988, section 160 and Protection of Children Act 1978, section 1.1.a. Indecent images of children are images of children (under 18 years) depicting sexual posing, performing sexual acts on themselves or others, animals or sadomasochism.

A child for these purposes is considered to be anyone under the age of 18. An image of a child also covers pseudo-photographs (digitally collated or otherwise). This offence can include images taken by and distributed by the child themselves (often referred to as "Sexting", see section 9.1). Viewing an indecent image of a child on your computer or phone means that you have made a digital image and printing/forwarding/sharing/publishing can be considered to be distribution. A person convicted of such an offence may face up to 10 years in prison.

Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008

Section 63 makes it an offence to possess "extreme pornographic images". 63 (6) identifies that such images must be considered to be "grossly offensive, disgusting or otherwise obscene". Section 63 (7) includes images of "threats to a person life or injury to anus, breasts or genitals, sexual acts with a corpse or animal whether alive or dead" must also be "explicit and realistic". Penalties for possession of extreme pornographic images can be up to 3 years imprisonment.

The Serious Crime Act 2015

Part 5 (Protection of Children) section 67 makes it a criminal offence for an adult (person aged over 18) to send a child (under 16) sexualised communications or sends communications intended to elicit a sexual communications. The offence is committed whether or not the child communicates with the adult. Penalties for sexual communication with a child can be up to 2 years imprisonment.

Section 69 makes it an offence to be in possession of paedophile manuals, information or guides (physically or electronically) which provide advice or guidance on sexually abusing children. Penalties for possession of such content can be up to 3 years imprisonment.

This law also removed references in existing legislation to terms such as child prostitution and child pornography and identified that this should be viewed to be child sexual exploitation.
